Thanks for joining the Puck You Fantasy Hockey League!

Puck You Fantasy Hockey League is to be the most enjoyable, respectable, and competitive fantasy hockey experience at a worthwhile yet affordable price, while enjoying and accepting the experience of the League Chat and all its members. It is not a place for any member to tear down or cause strife to others. The rules herein are the result of observing previous PYFHL seasons as well as consultation with commissioners of other fantasy sports leagues.

Pursuant to the Mission Statement of the Puck You Fantasy Hockey League (henceforth "PYFHL," and "the League," interchangeably), these rules shall be followed by all owners in the League with no exceptions; Commissioner and Co-Commissioners (also referred to as "Commissioners' Quorum") are not above these rules. Rules are to be amended only with full league awareness, input, and compliance. Post-draft, this document shall be considered final and binding until the end of the Fantasy Hockey Season.
